7. Participate in Location Monitoring with Home Incarceration as directed by Pretrial Services
8. Submit to location monitoring as directed by Pretrial Services, pay the cost based upon your ability to pay, active GPS monitoring

On September 28, 2020, Your Honor was informed the defendant left his residence without permission on September 21, 2020. The location monitoring requirements of home incarceration were explained to the defendant.

Respectfully presenting petition for action of court and for cause as follows:

On October 4, 2020, the defendant left the residence without permission from 17:56 to 18:14. When asked why he left the residence, the defendant indicated he went outside to smoke because his one-year old nephew was visiting. This officer again reviewed with the defendant he is not to leave the residence for any reason except medical purposes.

A NCIC query did not indicate any new criminal activity.

Due to the defendant's second unauthorized leave while on home incarceration, and the condition of zero tolerance for any violations while on bond, Pretrial Services is requesting a hearing.

Contact has been initiated with Assistant United States Attorney, Hank Moon and defense counsel, Wyatt G. Harris, to advise that Pretrial Services would be requesting a bond review hearing in view of the above.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER a Bond Review Hearing to be held on October 14, 2020, at _____ a.m. 2:00 p.m. so that

Mr. Green may answer as to why his bond should not be canceled in this matter.
